

Throughout your time with Phillomena Dance School, there may be occasions when we feel it necessary or in your child's interests to help with the transportation of your child to or from classes or related events. This will involve being transported by a teacher or other member of staff of Phillomena Dance School in their own private vehicle. Where possible, prior verbal consent will be sought for every such journey.
Not applicable during Covid-19 pandemic.

Travel consent FORM

I consent to teachers and staff of Phillomena Dance School transporting my child in a private vehicle when prior verbal permission is sought for the journey.

I do not consent to teachers and staff of Phillomena Dance School transporting my child in a private vehicle when prior verbal permission is sought for the journey.

I consent to teachers and staff of Phillomena Dance School transporting my child in a private vehicle in an emergency or when they believe it is in the best interests of the child.

I do not consent to teachers and staff of Phillomena Dance School transporting my child in a private vehicle in an emergency or when they believe it is in the best interests of the child.